

TMK IPSCO

*JOB OPENING for a Process Engineer

at our Blytheville, AR facility

Who We Are: Producers of welded and seamless pipe and premium connections, dedicated to serving the oil and gas industry and other industrial markets. To find out more about us, please visit http://tmk-ipsco.tmk-group.com/tmk\_ipsco\_whoare.

Here are a few key attributes they are looking for in the process engineer:

- Demonstrated experience leading change in manufacturing environment.
- Demonstrated technical proficiency. Should be able explain in detail how processes they were responsible for worked and how problems were solved.
- 3-5 years manufacturing experience – Ideally with experience in one or more of the following: forming/welding/heat treatment/machining/steel making
- Problem solving – Demonstrated results using Lean/Six Sigma or equivalent structured problem solving methodology
- Potential for upward mobility – Candidate should be able to move into management position in 2 to 4 years. Engineering degree – Mechanical or Metallurgical Engineering preferred

If interested, please contact Jason Washington – Talent Acquisition Specialist:
jwashington@tmk-ipsco.com; 281.949.1866.