Traverse the Colorado Rockies with Collette Vacations as you journey through the beauty of nature with Alpine lakes, towering peaks and rolling meadows at every turn. Your tour begins in the "Mile High City" of Denver, Colorado. Today dinner will be included.

Day 2: Sunday, September 05, 2010

Denver - Boulder - Estes Park - Rocky Mountain National Park - Denver

Travel to the resort village of Estes Park, famous for its Stanley Hotel, the inspiration for Stephen King's novel The Shining. Enjoy leisure time to meander among its unique shops and fine galleries. ★Next stop is Rocky Mountain National Park where you'll discover the true meaning of "panoramic" as you experience incredible views.★ Then, travel across the famed Trail Ridge Road* which forms the highest continuous highway in America reaching heights of 12,183 feet. This celebrated "Roof of the Rockies" offers views of massive peaks, rugged canyons and thundering waterfalls as you cross the continental divide. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 3: Monday, September 06, 2010

Denver - Georgetown - Grand Junction

★Travel through the Rocky Mountains on a scenic and historic train ride aboard the Georgetown Loop Railroad.★ Completed in 1884 as a means to transport silver in and out of the region, this spectacular stretch of narrow gauge railroad is an engineering marvel and features several horseshoe curves and bridges including the Devil's Gate High Bridge. A lunch stop will be made at the picturesque Alpine village of Vail. Lined with chalets, outdoor cafes and intriguing shops and galleries, Vail is one the finest resort destinations in the world. Later, arrive in Grand Junction, your home for the next two evenings. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 4: Tuesday, September 07, 2010

Grand Junction - Colorado National Monument - Grand Junction

Today, visit one of the grand landscapes of the American West - Colorado National Monument. Travel along the Rim Rock to see a colorful panorama of deep, sheer-sided canyons and high rock towers. Later, journey to Colorado's wine country to learn about one of the region's finest vineyards and sample the fruits of its labors. ★Tonight's winemaker's dinner at a lovely vineyard will be an exceptional experience where you can relax and enjoy the company of your fellow travelers.★ Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 5: Wednesday, September 08, 2010

Grand Junction - Silverton - Durango

Today, drive south to the small mining town of Silverton, a national historic landmark. Hidden high in the San Juan Mountains, this town offers spectacular scenery, Victorian charm and historic architecture built between 1882 and 1910. ★Then it's "all aboard" the Durango and Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad. This 1881 coal-fired, steam-powered locomotive was built to haul silver and gold ore from the San Juan Mountains...but you will soon realize it is the view that is truly precious.★ Today breakfast will be included.

Day 6: Thursday, September 09, 2010

Durango - Mesa Verde National Park - Durango

An incredible day awaits at Mesa Verde National Park which preserves the one thousand year culture of the remarkable Anasazi Indians. Visit the fascinating Spruce Tree Cliff Dwellings to see two of the largest cliff dwellings built between AD 1211 and 1278 by ancestors of the Pueblos. This evening, enjoy an Old West adventure filled with traditional cowboy food and entertainment**. Today breakfast and dinner will be included

Day 7: Friday, September 10, 2010

Durango - Canon City - Colorado Springs

Travel east across southern Colorado to Canon City's Royal Gorge Railroad. ★Board the train for a 24-mile ride beneath the highest suspension bridge in the world, the Royal Gorge Bridge, which spans the gorge 1,053 feet above the railroad tracks.★ This, is some of the most spectacular scenery you will ever see. Today breakfast will be included
