

Computer Labs Monitored

The computer labs are now equipped with a monitoring device that allows any system to be monitored at any given time.

 Users should be aware that systems may be viewed by lab personnel at any time. ***

User found to be accessing objectionable material may be warned and upon second occurrence, computer lab privileges may be revoked.

Depending on the offense, the act could be subject to criminal charge.

Please read over Arkansas Northeastern College's computer use policy.
